Liljenquist & Beckstead | liljenquistbeckstead.com (<http://liljenquistbeckstead.com/>)

Sherrie Beckstead is a Partner at Liljenquist & Beckstead and Lenkersdorfer Fine Jewelers in their five locations spanning the DC Metropolitan area. In addition to her role as an owner and investor, Sherrie has led the companies in digital brand and marketing strategies. Sherrie has directly partnered with the global leaders of 25 luxury brands that include Rolex, Cartier, Chopard and Mikimoto. Sherrie's initiatives in facilitating excellence in the digital marketplace, as well as leadership training, corporate and community development and education, remain her focus in business and in philanthropy.

Sherrie currently serves on the National Advisory Council for the Trust for The National Mall in Washington, DC. She recently established a cause branded jewelry line, The Lockkeepers Collection, which donates a portion of the proceeds to The Trust, directly benefiting the continued preservation efforts of the monuments in the nation's capital. Additionally, Sherrie is a new member of The Tysons Partnership Board of Directors, which focuses on the growth and development of one of the area's fastest growing regions. Sherrie continues to serve as the Public Relations Co-Chair and Executive Committee Member for the Women & Wine Annual Event at Georgetown Hospital's Lombardi Breast Cancer Center in Washington, DC.

She is an emeritus board member of Atlantic General Hospital, St. Mary's School Board of Directors in Annapolis, MD and President of Historic St. Martin's Foundation. Sherrie is a graduate of the University Of Delaware and a current student at the eCornell School of Leadership studies.
